This secondary house at Apple Hill is located on the west side of White Hall Road, just north of its junction with Kieffer Funk Road in Washington County, Md. It is situated on a low bank, above White Hall Road and just northeast of the main house of Apple Hill, WA-I-034.

The structure is a one-and-a-half story, four-bay stone and siding-covered dwelling, painted white with black trim. Windows six-over-six light double-hung sahses held within narrow frames. The main entrance is located in the second bay from the south end of the house. The roof is of asphalt shingles and extends beyond the end walls. A double porch extending the length of the house is framed under the main roof span. Brick chimneys rise from inside each gable end.

A stone smokehouse with a steeply hipped roof is located just south of the house.

The house is in good condition and is located on a 49-acre property.
